

George Albert Smith

“There is a line of demarcation, well defined, between the Lord’s territory and the Devil’s.”

Birth and Death

April 4, 1870 in Salt Lake City, Utah
April 4, 1951 in Salt Lake City, Utah

Marriages

Lucy Emily Woodruff, 1892

Baptized

June 6, 1878 in City Creek,
Salt Lake City, Utah

Missions

1891 to Southern Utah
1892 – 1894 to Southeastern US
1919 – 1921 President of European Mission

Sustained as President and Prophet of the Church

1945

Favorite:

Hymn - “Do what Is Right”

Saying - “I would not be an enemy to any living soul!”

Food - Oyster Stew

Verse From the “Prophet Song”

George Albert was a prophet, a friend to every man.

“Help me to help others in every way I can.”

Gave his coat away to someone else in need.

He lived as our Savior in his word and deed.

Highlights of Administration

- ◆ Sent missionaries to many parts of the world closed because of World War II
- ◆ Began sending food and other supplies to Saints in Europe after World War II
- ◆ Early morning seminary began

What History Will Remember

He and his father, John Henry Smith, served on the Quorum of the Twelve Apostles at the same time (unique in church history).

Church Membership

1,111,314

Temples Dedicated

Idaho Falls

