

JOSEPH F. SMITH

"I know that my Redeemer lives...I am converted to it in my whole being."

Birth and Death

November 13, 1838 in Far West, MO
Died November 19, 1918 in Salt Lake City, UT

Marriages

Juliana Lambson May 5, 1866
4 other plural wives.

Baptized

May 21, 1852 in City Creek, Salt Lake City, Utah

Missions

1854 - 1857 to Hawaii
1860 - 1863 to England
1874 - 1875 President of European Mission

Sustained as President and Prophet of the Church

1891

Favorite:

Hymn - "I Know that My Redeemer Lives"

Saying - "Do the best you can and leave the rest to the Lord."

Favorite Food - Custard Pie

Verse From the "Prophet Song"

Joseph F. the prophet, lost his father dear.
At the age of seven, was a pioneer.
Once a mob attacked him, he knew what to do.
He said "I'm a Mormon, true blue through and through."

Church Membership

495,962

Temples Dedicated-

None

Highlights of Administration

- ◆ Church published first church magazine for children - "The Children's Friend"
- ◆ Church became debt free
- ◆ Began to use Boy Scouts of America as part of Young Men's organization
- ◆ Seminary began
- ◆ First church magazine for women published
- ◆ Family Home Evening began
- ◆ Received vision for Redemption of the Dead

What History Will Remember

- He drove an ox team across the plains when he was nine years old.

